ABOUT COMMANDO CLOTH AND DUVETYNE:

There is some confusion as to the definition of these two fabrics. Depending upon whom you talk to in film, TV, theatre, East Coast, West Coast, or Europe, the two names get interchanged. Our COMMANDO CLOTH is very durable and opaque, yet inexpensive. Our DUVETYNE is lightweight fabric for low budget or "throw-a-way-afterwards" applications.

COMMANDO CLOTH:

A heavy, tightly woven, very opaque cotton fabric with the durability of denim and a non-reflective napped face that is extensively used as an inexpensive velour substitute for back stage masking curtains and TV cyclorama curtains. Flameproofed. Width is 56".

Available colors:

Black	Grey	ChromaKey Blue
